

Academic Affairs Commission

Travel Grant Mini Fund (TGMF) Guidelines

I. About

1. Undergraduate Student Association Council

1. The Undergraduate Student Association Council (USAC) is comprised of 15 elected undergraduate members. USAC is the governing body of the Undergraduate Student Association (USA), which consists of all UCLA undergraduate students.

2. The Academic Affairs Commission

1. The Academic Affairs Commissioner is one of the 15 elected undergraduate student body officers. This officer is in charge of the Academic Affairs Commission (AAC) and the liaison between the undergraduate body, USAC, the Academic Senate, and administration. In order to represent the Associated Students on all matters of educational policy and academic affairs, AAC is responsible for providing programs, initiatives, and activities that enhance the educational environment at UCLA.

3. Academic Affairs Commission Director of the Travel Grant Mini Fund

1. The Director of the Travel Grant Mini Fund is chosen by the Academic Affairs Commissioner each year. The Director of the Travel Grant Mini Fund is the governing body of the Travel Grant Mini Fund. The Director of the Travel Grant Mini Fund has two responsibilities:
  1. Deciding allocations of applicants for undergraduates and student groups
  2. Overseeing the application process for the Travel Grant Mini Fund

4. Travel Grant Mini Fund Information

1. The purpose of the Academic Affairs Commission Travel Grant Mini Fund is to support UCLA undergraduate students and student groups with their academic endeavors. The Travel Grant Mini Fund provides grants for their travel and accommodation expenses during these academic events. By mitigating possible financial constraints of academic travel, the Travel Grant Mini Fund hopes to provide equal opportunities to students.
2. Established in 2016, this Travel Grant Mini Fund is provided through the Social Justice Referendum to help alleviate costs of academic endeavors on UCLA undergraduates of low income and nontraditional backgrounds.
3. The Travel Grant Mini Fund currently is the only academic-specific travel grant under USAC.
4. Each application will be considered for the maximum of funds in accordance to the categorization of the academic events, as determined by the Director of the Travel Grant Mini Fund.
5. The Academic Affairs Commission Director of the Travel Grant Mini Fund reserves the right to alter the requirements of the application at any time, with notice to all recipients.
